Dear Parishioners of Divine Savior and our Cherished Visitors:

Today’s first reading and Gospel are written in a style that can arouse a feeling of dread and hardship, one of dire warning and, for some, impending doom. Unique as this style of writing is, its purpose is to remind us that our time on earth is limited and that we are encouraged to make the most of that time so that we can be among those whom God considers as His elect whom He will gather from the four winds.

Another point in this style of writing is to emphasize that God is quite in control. None of us but the Father knows when we will be asked to share with God how we have used God.

If we remain faithful to the will of God and the example of His Son, we will have provided for one another all that is expected of us.

Butte County Fires: Do you know of a home for rent or an Airbnb availability? Some of our parishioners have family members who have lost their homes in the Camp Fire, and are looking for modest one or two bedroom homes in our area. Please contact the parish office if you know of anything. (916) 989-7480 Thank you!

Second Collection: We will have a second collection for the fires next weekend November 24/25th at all Masses. We are collecting cash as well as non-perishables like pasta, cereal, rice, peanut butter, coffee, bars of soap, shampoo, toothpaste, toothbrushes,一直都等. Donations may be dropped off at the parish office as well. Make checks payable to Divine Savior.
