Dear Beloved People of Divine Savior and our cherished visitors:

Last week we celebrated the conclusion of the Easter Season with our celebration of the gift of the Holy Spirit. This Sunday, we celebrate the Most Holy Trinity and next Sunday The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. We begin today that process of unfurling what it means to be blessed and guided by the Holy Spirit; this process will continue all the way up to the first Sunday of Advent on December 1st.

Our Gospel for today notes that Jesus is speaking with His disciples, a group of folks made up of apostles, other leaders, as well as other men and women who had been following Jesus. This passage could stand alone as a great description of the Trinity. Jesus states that He shares fully in all the blessings that God shows on all who open their lives to these benefits. The Holy Spirit takes what Jesus and the Father share and will continue to make it known to all the followers of Jesus, and we are certainly included. Jesus acknowledged that He is truly present as one of the three persons of the Trinity when He states that He had much more to tell His first followers. We will not miss out on anything because the Holy Spirit will guide us to all truth, unless, of course, we choose not to be open to the promptings of the Spirit.

Given the majesty and magnificence of all creation, we ponder in our celebration of the gift of the Holy Spirit. This Sunday, we begin today that process of building the community that Jesus, our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, I thank my God every time I remember you. Philippaepan 1:2-3

Grace and Peace to you from Our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. PLEASE NOTE Confessions on Saturday, June 22nd will be right after the 4:30pm Mass.

YOUR OPINION MATTERS! We created a parish survey to give everyone an opportunity to voice their opinion!

4 ways to participate in Parish survey:
1) Parish website - access the survey under “Parish Communications”
2) myParish app - Text “App” to 88202 to download the parish app. Access the survey under “Parish info.”
3) Hold your smartphone camera over the QR code and you will have instant access to the survey.
4) Fill out a paper copy found in the vestibule or parish office and return to parish office.

The parish survey will be accessible through the end of June. Thank you for your participation!

Financial Wellness workshop offered at Divine Savior Sunday, June 30th 1pm – 2:30pm in Y3 portable.

One of our parishioners, Mike Hackett, is a Financial Wellness Educator and is offering these courses as a ministry to the parish. There is no cost and no specific investment advice will be given, or any products sold. This workshop focuses on Relationships & Money - the challenges of communicating about money, couples working as teams, dealing with parents that haven’t planned properly for their retirement, tips on teaching money concepts to children, etc. If you came to the first 2 sessions, bring your workbook. A workshop will be provided to those coming for the first time. For more information, or to RSVP contact: Denise Hackett, denise@divinesavior.com
